

We bring new life to vintage finds. In Hendersonville we found an old, thick, nicely weathered pallet. Added some lumber for support, khaki paint to complement the weathered look, and made an entry table with shelves. Note how the pallet supports (wood with arched openings) are used for decorations.

This would make a great entry table or sofa table. And any designer will tell you that khaki is the new black!

$89