

We found a nice slab of Douglas Fir in Asheville. After cutting and planing the surfaces smooth, we saw it would make a great TV table, entry table, or even a bar. Adding pallet wood on the sides and two shelves underneath, then painting the legs a timeless white, completes that rustic modern look. Then we added some casters to make it easier to move around.

36" tall, about 40" wide and 24" deep.

$139