

I had some nice walnut boards left over from another project and made this nice top for a TV table. Then I added some red oak off a barn in South Asheville, used pallet boards for the shelves, and added some nice black ornamental brackets. The result is a nice TV or entry table with that rustic, repurposed look.

48 inches long, 15 inches deep, 31 inches high. Table thickness is around 1".

$275